

Practical Information

From Brussels Airport: the easiest way to reach Liège is to take a train to Leuven and then change in Leuven for another train heading for 'Luik-Guillemins - Eupen' (please note that, as Leuven is in the Flemish-speaking part of Belgium, 'Liège' is called 'Luik', and 'Luik-Guillemins'/'Liège-Guillemins' is the name of the main station, where you should step out).

In Liège, when you exit the train station, there are taxis on your right. Alternatively, there is a bus stop in front of the station (any bus from the lines 1, 4, 30, 48 which is heading for the center of the city would bring you close to the university building and/or your hotel).

Please make sure to keep all the original tickets/receipts to get reimbursed later.