

27-28
APRIL 2026

Salle
Lumière

LIÈGE université
Philosophie et Lettres
Département de Philosophie

UniGR Graduate Conference in Philosophy 2026

This conference brings together doctoral candidates from the University of the Greater Region (UniGR) across all areas of philosophy to present and discuss their current research.

The programme will also feature two professional keynote speeches given by Prof. Ernesto Castro (Autonomous University of Madrid) and Prof. Martine Nida-Rümelin (Université de Fribourg).

The aim of the conference is to foster engagement and connections across the UniGR network.

All students and staff associated with the UniGR universities are welcome to attend.

Organisers: efield@uliege.be cblanco@uliege.be

Funded by UniGR and UR Traverses.

Day 1: Monday 27th April

10:00	Welcome
10:10	Conference Opening by Ethan Harley Field
10:20	Introduction by Vice Rector Pierre Duysinx
10:50	Doctorant Daniel Usma Gomez (University of Lorraine) Abstrahentium non est mendacium: Thomas Aquinas' defense of mathematical truth
11:50	Coffee Break
12:00	Doctorant Aleksandar Georgiev (Theological Faculty Trier) History through the Lens of Structural Phenomenology
13:00	Lunch Break
14:00	Doctorant Laszlo Gason (University of Liège) An Ethical Reading of Structural Anthropology: From Lévi-Strauss to Descola and Héritier
15:00	Coffee Break
15:10	Doctorant Mariam Mansuore (University of Liège) The evolution of the concept of perversion in Deleuze
16:10	Coffee Break
16:30	Keynote Speaker Ernesto Castro (University of Madrid) What is Generic Naturalism? A Brief Introduction
18:00	End of Day One
19:30	Conference Dinner

Day 2: Tuesday 28th April

10:20	Doctorant Danka Radjenović (RPTU) Language makes sense if living makes sense: in support of Rush Rhees' reading of later Wittgenstein
11:20	Coffee Break
11:30	Doctorant Daniel Barrio Martinez (University of Luxembourg) The logical category of thinking: an analysis
12:30	Lunch Break
13:30	Doctorant Ethan Harley Field (University of Liège) Consciousness without inner awareness
14:30	Coffee Break
14:40	Keynote Speaker Martine Nida-Rümelin (Université de Fribourg) Are conscious subjects microphysically determined in their active behaviour?
16:10	Conference Closure by Christian Blanco
16:30	End of Day Two

